

Joy - Koinonia Youth Peshawar arranged a seminar entitled “New Life in Christ” that was held on 23rd March 2010. The seminar was a complete success and it was attended by around 2, 000 people who experienced the anointing of the Holy Spirit and gained greater insight about the life in Christ.

There were guests from Rawalpindi , Kohat , Cherat and Tarbela who also came to attend the seminar.

As for the preparation of the seminar, the youth participated very actively in the arrangements of the seminar. They worked day and night in the making the banners and charts for the church. Around 800 hand made book marks were made by the youth as souvenirs for the attendants and white handkerchiefs, which were anointed during the seminar were also distributed among the people . The material used, during the seminar for different dynamics, was also prepared by the youth members .The youth also spent a week in cleaning the Church and its premises.

All the members of the youth invested their money and time in the preparations of seminar.

For raising funds for the seminar, face painting stalls were arranged for the Sunday School children. The youth also visited the Christian localities for raising funds for the seminar. All the people supported and helped them open heartedly.

